

AVAME  W

INTRODUCTION

Once upon a time, King Meowthur was in danger. His knights, loyal servants, and the mighty magician Meowlin were on a journey to protect the king; together, they would all travel to the legendary fairyland AvaMeow. 🐱

BACKGROUND STORY

Once upon a time, King Meowthur was in danger. His knights, loyal servants, and the mighty magician Meowlin were on a journey to protect the king; together, they would all travel to the legendary fairyland AvaMeow.

However, the task was not completed easily with the many disguised evils on the trek Meowgana, Meowdred, Assassin Meow, and the minions would seek chances to take down the rescue team and squash their quest.

The evil knows who their people are. The mighty magician foresees the evil but cannot expose them - if Meowlin was exposed, Assassin Meow has their paw, and an attack awaits. Without the magician, the team of good will never reach King Meowthur.

Thus, the rescuer team has to conquer the tasks! Will they arrive on the side of King Meowthur and accompany him to AvaMeow safe and sound? The options are out, and the future is in your hands!

RULES

1. How the Journey Start

The game consists of several rounds; each round has a Team-building phase and a Quest phase.

- Team-building Phase: The leader proposes a team to complete a Quest - all the players will either approve the proposed team and move to the quest phase, or reject the proposed team passing leadership to the next player and repeating the process until a team is approved.
- Quest Phase: Players selected to be on the team will determine if the Quest is successful.

2. Success or Fail Quests

- Royal Family: Meowthur and Goodness prevail if the team of Good is able to successfully complete three quests without revealing Meowlin's true identity.
- Evil Family: Meowdred's dark forces of Evil win when three quests end in failure or are devious enough to force Meowlin into the open.

The game ends immediately after either 3 successful or three failed quests. The evil players win if 3 quests fail and when 5 teams are rejected in a single round.

3. Evil's Last Chance: Assassinate Meowlin

If 3 quests are completed successfully, the evil players will have a final opportunity to win the game by correctly naming which of the good players is Meowlin.

Without revealing any character cards, the evil players discuss and the player with the assassin character card will name one good player as Meowlin.

If the named player is Meowlin, then Evil players win. If the evil players do not name Merlin, then the Good players win.

GAME MECHANIC

It is a battle of good versus evil to determine who will rule the future society! You must help your side win by either passing or failing the missions you go on. Make sure you choose who you want to go on the mission wisely or you risk helping the other team. Oh, and be sure to keep your identity secret throughout the game in order to gain favour among your fellow players!
